BIO

Imre started his career as Olympic gymnast at the age of 8 and was selected in the junior national league at age 12. Later he became a national champion in his native Hungary. At the age of 19 Cirque Du Soleil gave him the opportunity to take part in the artistic development program at their Montreal headquarters, before he joined production "The Midnight Sun". In addition to his early work as an aerialist, Imre trained in Clown full and bouffon, under the master Philippe Gaulier in Paris.

Imre has collaborated with numerous dance and circus companies, toured theatres, street festivals and big tops throughout Europe. Imre resides in London UK, where he performs regularly in the world Famous Covent Garden.
