La Course De Cri

Hello Folks,

There comes a time in life when our children will have to learn a hard lesson: the louder you scream, the more you achieve.

Our tricycles react to sound: when you scream you 'll go even faster. If you scream louder, more people will hear you, more people will notice you. You will quickly cross the finish line and be the winner. Just like in real life.

The crowd can place a bet on their favourite driver with my Little Red Riding Hoods.

And I will explain the rules of my game ;-)
